Catcher Ainsmith Out of the Game with a Badly Sprained Ankle

NAPS GIVE NATIONALS ANOTHER KICK IN SLATS

Cleveland Makes it Three Straight by 8 to 4—Errors Again Costly to McAleer's Hopefuls.

By HENRY P. EDWARDS.
(Baseball Writer, the Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
Special to the Washington Herald.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 20.—It was three straight from Washington and five victories in a row for the Naps today when the locals captured the contest from the Nationals, by 8 to 4. For seven innings it was a pitcher's battle between Groom and Paige, the latter being the right-hander purchased from New Orleans a week ago.

In the eighth, with Cleveland only one run to the good, the Naps proceeded to score five tallies, and after chances had been given to retire the side. This time it was Cunningham's excusable fumble of Jackson's drive that did the damage. That would have made the second out, while Eassey's fly to Milan would have made the third. But Cunningham's error gave the Naps their chance, and they made the best of it, five hits following in quick succession. Paige finally cleared the bases, sending three of his new team mates across the plate.

Ainsmith Sprains Ankle.
The defeat was a costly one in another way for the Nationals, as Catcher Ainsmith twisted his ankle in turning third base in the fourth inning and had to be carried off the field. It was thought at first that the member was broken, but a bad strain is said to be the extent of the damage. He will be out of the game for several days and in the meantime Henry will be forced to do all the back-stopping.

Washington got three hits and two bases on balls in the first inning, yet scored only one run. Milan led off with a single, and Schaefer and Lelievre bunted safely, filling the bases. Elberfeld hit into a double play, Paige, Fisher to Stovall. Gessler was passed, purposely, while McBride also walked, scoring Schaefer. Cunningham fanned, leaving the bases cleared.

Cleveland tied the score in the second on Stovall's infield hit. Birmingham's sacrifice and Ball's single. The locals took the lead in the third, when Groom scored on his pass, Jackson's hit, and Eassey's fly to Gessler.

Washington tied the score in the seventh, when, with two out, Milan tripled and scored when Stovall dropped Olson's throw on Schaefer's grounder.

Naps Take Lead.
Cleveland again took the lead in the same inning on hits by Stovall, Ball, and Fisher, and a sacrifice by Birmingham, who forced Stovall, scoring the run.

The Naps grabbed off some more in the eighth. Olson led off with a double, but was caught off second by Groom. Cunningham's error saved Jackson, who stole second and scored on Stovall's single. Birmingham, Ball, and Fisher then singled while Paige doubled, five runs being the result.

In the ninth the Nationals made a brief rally. Miller, batting for Cunningham, grounded to Birmingham. Henry singled, and Conroy, batting for Groom, doubled. Milan followed with a single, scoring Henry and Conroy. That was all, as Schaefer forced Milan and Fisher thru out Lelievre.

NOTES OF THE GAME.
Catcher Ainsmith was sent home owing to a very badly swollen ankle, which may keep him out of the game for a week or two.

The Naps were lucky in planting several hits in short left field, Lelievre being caught napping, as in these lively ball days he was playing deep.

Three Nationals attempted to steal and two were caught, Schaefer being the only one to get away with it.

The Cleveland club received an official bulletin from Ban Johnson to-day saying that no longer would the pitchers be permitted to pitch five balls to the catcher at the start of each inning. Ban stated that he took this measure so as to cut down the time of the games.

Gregg, the Nap southpaw, who has won three straight games, and either Johnson or Hefner will be the opposing pitchers in the Sunday game. Johnson, however, is scarcely likely to officiate.

Nap Lajoie is not expected to play before Tuesday, as his ankle is still bothering him. Neal Barry, however, took his place satisfactorily to-day, making three hits, each with men on bases.

But for Cunningham's error on Jackson's grounder in the eighth, Washington might have won the game. It was responsible for five runs.

Lajoie worked out a little at second base and also appeared on the coaching lines. He may play in Sunday's game, but it is doubtful.

Stovall's hit in the second inning was one McBride knocked down but could not field.

"We have solved Jackson's weakness," quoth Jim McAleer before the game. "It is a low curve ball." Then Joe slammed out a double and a single.

Olson started the eighth with a double, but was caught off the base by Groom's snap throw.

DONOVAN'S SMILE

INSPIRES ATHLETICS

Seven Hits in Three Innings Turn Game's Tide.

Detroit, May 20.—Bill Donovan, who has been waiting all spring for hot weather, made his first appearance to-day, the temperature being over 80. Philadelphia won, 14 to 12.

Donovan had naught but his reputation and his smile when he finished. The Athletics took seven hits, three passes, and a couple of sacrifices from him in three innings, netting eight runs.

He was spared the indignity of being yanked in the middle of the inning, but that courtesy lost the game, for the Tigers played their usual brilliant brand of ball and finally knocked Combs out of the box. Score:
